Description:

This charming guest cottage to one of the few estates spared by the '47 fire will surely charm you. With its traditional cape design, simple layout, and tasteful furnishings, Moore Guest Cottage has recently been expanded. Don't let its proximity to Bar Harbor's village center fool you - the cottage enjoys a pastoral setting among a sweeping meadow and the formal gardens of the owner's home. Tenants of the Guest Cottage are welcome to stroll among the celebrated Beatrix Farrand gardens and apple orchard, accented by a lovely pergola that invites one to rest and sip tea in the shade.

FIRST FLOOR: Open Living and Dining area with dining table to seat 8 comfortably, a cozy propane fireplace and doors to the yard. Step up to the newly renovated and well furnished Kitchen. Library with queen sleeper sofa. Mud room. Full Bath with claw foot tub and afterthought shower.

SECOND FLOOR: Stairs from the new living area lead to the new wing offering a Master Bedroom with King bed and private Bathroom with shower only, a Bedroom with King bed, Guest Bathroom with combined tub and shower, and a Laundry Area. A walk-through bedroom with Queen bed connects the new wing to the original house and leads to a fourth Bedroom with Twins. These bedrooms can access the new guest bathroom or the first floor full bath via stairs that lead back to the central hall of the older portion of the house.

EXTRAS: Access to main house's celebrated Beatrix Farrand gardens.
