Description:

Built at the beginning of the 20th century as part of an Adirondack style compound, this cottage's interiors were redesigned by modernist Wallace Harrison for a trustee of the Museum of Modern Art. Use of local wood and stone make it feel like an extension of the landscape. The ocean side of the cottage has been opened up with large windows which look past blueberry bushes and tall spruce trees out to the Bear Island Light and all of the Great Harbor. Perfect for one to two people with occasional guests. Rental of this property includes use of deep-water dock, and daytime use of an indoor pool.

FIRST FLOOR: Living Room with a stone fireplace. Combined Dining and Kitchen Area suitable for entertaining. Bedrooms: one with twin beds, the other with a queen. Each bedroom has its own Full Bath.

NOTE: Fully equipped kitchen including microwave oven. Satellite TV and Internet. Use of Washer/Dryer in separate building.

EXTRAS: Use of deep water dock with permission, and daytime use of indoor pool.

This cottage is connected on one side to a companion cottage that may be rented in combination with this property. Please ask rental agent for further details.
