Don't be surprised to see a bald eagle right next to the house on the towering pine, where they are known to frequent. Filled with character, this little home offers a great, private getaway spot within easy reach of Southwest Harbor's village center. Access to the water is possible for those who don't mind a little clamoring down the bluff. The ten minute walk to town is also nice or make it in less time via the beach at low tide.

Living/Dining Room with comfortable furnishings, dining area and Murphy Bed (Twin and Full size Bed) with large pull out drawer for storage. Door to front deck overlooking the upper harbor. Unique open beamed ceiling throughout. With the flip of a switch, you can enjoy the warmth of the propane-fired "wood" stove - all the ambiance of a wood stove without the mess and hassle! Full Bath with high sided claw foot tub and "after-thought" shower.
