Description:

Recently updated and nicely appointed with tasteful furnishings and appliances, this sweet and well cared for 1920s home was featured in the March 2012 issue of Country Living magazine. It's sure to charm and delight any party of up to six people coming to enjoy Acadia National Park. Located in the historic village of Otter Creek within walking distance to the Quarry Path trailhead, the Otter Creek Market, The Burning Tree Restaurant and the village playground, this lovely home also puts you within 5 minutes by car from the villages of Seal Harbor and Bar Harbor and the National Park's most popular destinations including Sand Beach, Thunder Hole, Bee Hive and the Park Loop Road. And for those who prefer to leave the car behind, not to worry! The free Island Explorer shuttle passes right through the village of Otter Creek.

FIRST FLOOR: Enter through a sunny and enclosed front porch. You'll be welcomed by a nicely appointed Living Room. A comfortable den with sofa and TV offers a more casual place to retreat. The charming kitchen decorated with splashes of red is well equipped with stainless appliances, soapstone counters and peninsula with counter seating for three. Separate Dining Room offers a table for six. Newly added half bath.

SECOND FLOOR: Upstairs you'll find three Bedrooms - two queens and one set of twins. These bedrooms share a spacious Bathroom with claw foot tub and separate walk-in shower.

PORCH: Furnished with a full-size daybed, the enclosed front porch serves as a warm and sunny place to nap or sleep with a view of Acadia's night sky.

OUTDOOR SPACES: Stone patio with fire pit provides a lovely setting for enjoying the evening outdoors.
