Tennis Court! Access to shore!

Description:

This wonderful and historic cottage, formerly known as "The Hunting Lodge" was a part of the renowned Vanderbilt estate. Now beautifully restored to its original splendor, Vanderbilt Lodge offers both walkable convenience to downtown Bar Harbor and shore access to a lovely quiet cove. Although there's no view of the water from this property, just a short stroll across the lawn leads you past your shared tennis court, and then further along a short path, you'll discover beautiful Cromwell Cove where you can enjoy access to a shared dock if desired. Additionally, the rear patio and spacious backyard provide plenty of space for outdoor play. Be sure to admire the meandering stream with its many stone foot bridges, all remnants of the original grounds designed by famous landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted.

FIRST FLOOR: Foyer entrance leads to Living Room with flat-screen TV and wood burning fireplace. A spacious formal Dining Room with a large table to seat 8 offers a gas fireplace. The renovated, eat-in sun-drenched Kitchen is equipped with high-end appliances and fixtures and counter seating for four. This room also contains a seating area with gas fireplace, plus a flat-screen TV. Half Bathroom.

SECOND FLOOR: Gracious Master Bedroom with queen bed. Separate Full Bathroom with amazing walk-in shower that features heat-sensitive lights built into the shower head to indicate hot, cold, or just right water temperatures. Three additional Bedrooms each with queen beds. Newly renovated Full Bathroom with clawfoot tub and separate shower. Laundry closet with full size stacked washer/dryer.

OUTDOOR SPACES: Screened-in porch and brick patio with furnishings overlooking the spacious yard and shared tennis court.

EXTRAS: Walk a trail to a shared granite pier with dock, right-of-way to Cromwell Harbor. Shared tennis court. Mid week cleaning will be provided upon request.
