Description:

The relaxed and peaceful setting of this Pretty Marsh Harbor camp is the perfect vacationers retreat. Enjoyed by generations, we expect your family, too, will find this an ideal location to spend time together launching your kayaks from the dock, taking a swim in the cove at high tide or combing the pebble beach. The many acres of spruce, pine, and mature woodlands combined with a spectacular oceanfront setting offers both beauty and considerable privacy. A footpath/trail leads from the south side of the house to Abenaki's private dock and a second trail to the boat house and onward to the beach.

FIRST FLOOR: Kitchen with basic amenities including large porcelain double sink and open shelves displaying cooking supplies. A large comfortable living area with several seating areas, writing desk, a beautiful granite fireplace and bank of windows overlooking the cove and door to furnished back deck. Dining table seats up to eight also with water views. Two Bedrooms, one with Twin beds and the other with a Queen. A Full Bathroom with tub and shower adjoined by both bedrooms. On the far side of the living area are three more Bedrooms, one with a Twin sized bed and sink only and also a Queen and another bedroom with Twin sized beds adjoined by a second Full Bathroom with a tub and shower.

OUTDOOR SPACES: Back deck with picnic table off the kitchen, large furnished water-facing deck with magnificent ocean views, and two footpaths - one to the dock and the other to a separate shore area.
